

Have You Cried for Lost Souls Today?

Have you cried for lost souls today?
Have you mourned for those gone astray?
Or do you just walk along your way
Thanking the Lord for this beautiful day?

Did you cry for lost souls this week?
Someone cried for yours so meek
When you did not know whom to seek.
Someone cried for yours one week.

Would you cry for lost souls this year?
Do souls going to Hell bring a tear to your eyes? Or do you fear
That you may give offense to any who hear?

Will you ever cry for lost souls?
Will you lift them from the holes
which trap them, destroy their goals?
Who will cry for all the lost souls?

CAN you cry for lost souls today?
Jesus mourned when you were gone astray.
His heart broke as you went your way
denying His name day after day.

You were blind, but saw the Light!
But have you seen the awful sight

of lost souls screaming in the night,
weary and worn from Adam's blight?

Cry for a lost soul today.
Jesus cried for yours one day.
The tears you shed will help you say,
"Lost soul, Jesus is the only way!"
