

to the Unknown God

Acts 17:22-23

by Rev. Ronald O. Bearden, PhD ©1978

<http://u18b.com>

Oh mighty River on the plain,
I perceive You are omnipotent!
My sacrifice to Thee is slain,
Provide me with all enlightenment.

But why do You not answer me
When on my knees I pray to Thee?

I perceive that you are not permanent!
That you are but a monument
to a higher lord.

-----

Oh Moon above my finite earth,
I perceive You are the Baal of life.
Your Power gives my soul rebirth;
Provide me with no concerns or strife.

And why do You not answer me
When on my knees I pray to Thee?

I perceive that you are not permanent!
That you are but a monument
To a higher god.

-----

Oh awesome Sun, I pledge my faith;
I perceive You are my long-sought lord.
Can You yet be another wraith?
Oh god most high, leave me not ignored!

But ... why do You not ..... answer me ....
When on my knees I pray to Thee?

I perceive that you are not permanent!
That you are but subservient
To a higher god.

-----

Oh, to Whom should my allegiance wend?
Fraudulent gods are not uncommon.
Can yet the Unknown God transcend
All past pagan gods of Babylon?

And .... Unknown God.... why do You answer me
..... when on my knees i pray to Thee?

... i perceive that i am not permanent
... that i am but subservient
to the Unknown God.